D-Marin Borik

44°07' 54"N, 15°12'36"E VHF 17

A top-of-the-line boutique marina in Croatia's ancient city of Zadar, D-Marin Borik is a fantastic gateway to the island-dotted Adriatic coast.

Location

D-Marin Borik is located right outside the historic heart of Zadar, the third largest coastal city in Croatia. Accessible by land and sea, the marina sits 13 km from the Zadar International Airport, with flights to more than 50 European destinations.

Nature

With more than 300 islands to explore in the Zadar archipelago, D-Marin Borik is a short sail away from extraordinary nature sights like the nearby Kornati National Park, a magnificent archipelago with a string of 89 islands, islets and reefs

THINGS TO DO & FACILITIES

Forty Bar

Forty bar is a cosy spot on the shore and a favorite among locals and visitors alike. It is a place to relax, enjoy a coffee, a glass of wine or have a quick meal by the pool with a view to the old city and islands.

Cuisine

Discover Mediterranean cuisine that features ingredients like fresh seafood, award-winning olive oils and traditional dishes like peka, a unique roasting method that produces the most succulent results - and pair all that with exquisite Dalmatian wines.

Culture

A vibrant city with a rich history that spans 3000 years, Zadar is a showcase of strikingly preserved Roman, Byzantine and Venetian architecture, including the 9th-century circular church of St. Donatus and the city's defensive walls, a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

MUST-SEE

Be enchanted by the sound of sea waves at Zadar's Sea Organ, a sound art installation. Sit on the perforated marble stairs dropping into the sea as the water pushes air through the whistles and pipes, creating hypnotic sounds. Wander around the ancient temples, colonnades and columns of Zadar's Roman Forum for a whiff of ancient history. Commissioned by the first Roman emperor, Augustus, it was built between 1st century BC and 3rd century AD. Today it's a bustling area by the seafront. Discover the serene bays and sandy beaches of Dugi Otok (Long Island), perfect for dropping anchor. The white-sand Sakarun can stand in for a Caribbean beach, while Brbinjsćica cove appeals with its mighty cliffs and many caves.
